TO THE PATRONS
OF THE IVORYTON PLAYHOUSE

I am so thrilled to be invited to play the Ivoryton Playhouse.

It is a new place for me and I am really looking forward to playing there.

I promise you some wonderful laughs and with me will be the most elegant magician you've ever seen. Mercer Helms does a high-brow pantomime act with six beautiful white doves.

I am introducing a singer, Jacques Kayal, who is blazing a musical trail to stardom. He is a sensational new singer destined for fame and glory!

My conductor, Peter Daniels, (who was Streisand's conductor on Broadway in FUNNY GIRL) will be doing duo-piano work with me. You may not know that my latest award was Miss Twinkle Fingers of 1978.

Looking forward to seeing you.

Til then
